THE CARR CENTER WILL BE THE SITE OF TWO METROPLEX RECORDS -TECHNO MUSIC PARTIES DURING THE DOUBLE 25TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Detroit, MI -- Sunday, May 30th, will be the 25th anniversary of Metroplex Records and the musical genre known as Techno. Devoted Techno followers will crank up the volume at two, 'Movement 2010' all night parties at the Carr Center, 311 East Grand River in Harmonie Park/Paradise Valley, Saturday the 29th and Sunday the 30th, both beginning at 10 p.m.

Almost since its debut, Techno has had a global impact on the world of music. But it never would have happened if it had not been for the men who originated the music form. One of the highlights of the 'Movement 2010' weekend will be their reunion of sorts...Juan Atkins, Derrick May, Kevin Saunderson and Eddie Fowlkes together again. This weekend will be the first time that these originators of Techno have performed together in over 15 years. In 2003, the Detroit Historical Museum paid the ultimate compliment to them and the music form with an exhibition entitled "Techno-Detroit's Gift to the World...it is the music the world was waiting for.

There is literally a laundry list of favorite Techno groups slated to perform at the Carr Center and various Detroit venues over the weekend such as Ben Sims, Theory Records-UK; Rob Hood, M-Plant-NY; Ben Klock, Clockworks-Berlin; Buzz Gorree, UR-Detroit; Josh Helton, and Fort Wayne, IN.; Ryan Elliott, Detroit; Dave Powers, Chicago; Bruce Bailey, Counter Balance/Dynamic Tension-UK; Aaron Atkins, Metroplex-Detroit; DJ Assault, UR-Detroit; Jan Liefhebber, Highland Beats-Germany; Jenny Lafemme, Detroit and more.

This is the first year that Techno activities have been held at the Carr Center, bringing a new type of event to the historic building. The ultimate music parties there are expected to attract upwards of 500 people.
